

2016 Enlighten Award Nominee

Faurecia

faurecia

DecoDisplay

DecoDisplay is a smart HMI display surface. The display can incorporate a curved thermoplastic overlay of which can be painted or covered with a decorative anti-glare or anti-reflection film to significantly improve the optical performance of the screen while making the display more decorative. Weight savings have been achieved through the optimization of the space between the display and the decoration part. This has allowed these two components to be reduced in size results in a weight saving.

Category:
Module

Application:
2016 Alfa Romeo Giulia

Weight Savings:

Methodology:
Material Reduction